THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. 1

SPOUTSPRING, KY., MAY 16, 1896.

NO. 17.

G.A.Givens has returned from the South where he disposed of five car loads of mules at from $60 to $110. The latter price was for extra good ones.—Interior Journal.

The Southern Mutual Investment Company has sued Postmaster McChesney, of Lexington, for $50,00 damages for placing the company on the fraud list and not sending out their mail.

The announcement of the birth of five boys, and all with good prospects of living, a short time ago to the wife of a Graves county farmer is something unusual, but shortly since an Indiana wife has given birth to six.

Turley and Robinson shipped on last Wednesday 400 hogs that they had bought from different parties in the county at from 24 to 3 cents. In this shipment were 28 bought of James Harve Henry, average 234 pounds; 30 bought of Col. Thos. Johnson, average 150 pounds, and 45 of W. B. Flanders, average 230.
